Rules of Play

1. Choose your game character: Tell or Helvetia.
2. Click on the duel button to start one of 5 duels.
3. One canton and one multiplier (x1, x2 or x3) will be drawn for each duel and each character.
4. For both characters, the product is calculated as area points based on the area of the canton drawn and the corresponding multiplier.
5. The difference between the area points of the character played and the area points of the non-played character gives the net area. The net area can be seen in the progress bar.
6. If the net area reaches or exceeds a particular value after 5 duels, the corresponding amount is won. In each case, only the highest prize amount reached is won.
7. If the selected character draws all bonus cantons assigned to a cash prize, the corresponding amount is won.
